

Around the Command

Energy Action Month Activities 2012

Arnold AFB, Tenn.

Throughout "How Low Can You Go" Energy Competition
Oct. Energy reduction contest between five office buildings to determine how much each facility can reduce its individual energy consumption from the previous year's level. Data from specific "How Low Can You Go" days will be measured to determine the affects of the energy savings measures that were taken.

Energy conservation topics displayed on computer log-in screens

Edwards AFB, Calif.

Throughout Edwards Energy Team display at annual Salute to Youth Conference in the Oct. Antelope Valley

Youth Center & Child Development Center energy crafts

Energy Action Month declaration signed by installation commander

Weekly rotation of energy display around base buildings

Mobile utility conservation awareness van at BX

Energy Action Month posters/plaques at each entry gate

Eglin AFB, Fla.

Oct. 4 Annual Energy Expo, featuring the following:

Approximately 20-30 vendors and companies providing energy-related product demonstrations and information

Six different energy presentations by Gulf Coast Energy Network

Display of vehicles that run on CNG, electricity, etc.

Vice wing commander award presentations to first place winners of grades 1-4 energy poster contest

Hanscom AFB, Mass.

Throughout Energy canopy displayed in high-traffic areas on base
Oct.

Energy Action Month pop-up screen during initial daily computer log-on

Interactive energy project with students at base elementary school

Conduct random, unannounced facility “energy sweeps”

Kirtland AFB, N.M.

Throughout Presentation of energy saving Air Force activities at New Mexico State Fair
Oct.

Booth distributing energy-related handouts and tips

Robins AFB, Ga.

Throughout Energy-related speakers at different locations on base
Oct.

Energy-related pop-up screen during initial daily computer log-on

Tinker AFB, Okla.

Late Hosting media event with Dr. Kevin Geiss, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air
October Force for Energy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Installations, Environment and Logistics

Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio

Throughout “Base-wide Holiday Weekend Challenge”
Oct. Energy contest asking personnel to make a combined effort to turn off all unnecessary devices (printers, copy machines, monitors, speakers) and lights and unplug all unnecessary equipment for the weekend. Data will be compared to consumption recorded during the Labor Day weekend and presented to the base populous.